Re: Notice of Event of Default and Demand for Payment

Dear Ambassador Vecchio:

I write this letter on behalf Altana Credit Opportunities Fund SPC (“ACOF SPC”), Altana Credit Opportunities Fund 1 SP (“ACOF 1 SP”), and Altana Funds Ltd. Cayman (“Altana”). ACOF SPC, and its fund, ACOF 1 SP, are beneficial owners of certain bonds (collectively) (the “Bonds”), identified in the attached Schedule 1. Altana acts as an investment adviser and manager for ACOF SPC and ACOF 1 SP.

The Bonds were issued by the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela (“Venezuela”). They are governed, respectively, by a fiscal agency agreement dated September 3, 1997, as amended (the “1997 FAA”), for which Chase Manhattan Bank is the identified fiscal agent; a fiscal agency agreement dated August 6, 1998, as amended (the “1998 FAA”), for which Chase Manhattan Bank is the identified fiscal agent; or a fiscal agency agreement dated July 25, 2001, as amended (the “2001 FAA”), for which Deutsche Bank AG and Bankers Trust Company are the identified fiscal agents. It is my understanding that BNY Mellon Global Corporate Trust or J.P. Morgan Chase Bank may now be the fiscal agent for those Bonds for which Chase Manhattan Bank was previously the fiscal agent.

Beginning in October 2017, Venezuela has failed to make required semi-annual interest payments on the Bonds. Venezuela has not made any of the required semi-annual interest payments since that date. Venezuela has also failed to pay the entire principal amount on the Bonds that have matured. Under the Bonds, coupon interest continues to accrue whether or not their maturity date has passed.

Therefore, an event of default has occurred under the Bonds’ terms. As a result, ACOF SPC, ACOF 1 SP, and Altana present this demand that Venezuela pay to them all accrued and unpaid interest on the Bonds currently due and payable, along with any interest thereon, and the entire principal amount for those Bonds that have matured, along with any interest thereon. Such entire amount should be forwarded to Altana, as investment adviser and manager.

We reserve all rights to take all necessary legal actions to enforce our rights, including, without limitation, rights to prejudgment and post-judgment interest.

Sincerely,

/s/ Lee Robinson

CIO & Director, Altana Funds
